

The Library Department was established in 1984. The Department focuses in the fields of research, collection, processing, organisation, management and dissemination of information, as well as in the means for recording knowledge, emphasising in the use of information technology. The courses also include organisation and administration methods and information services for both private and public sector. Furthermore the Department offers consulting services in Library organisation and administration issues.